FACTUAL ALLEGATIONS

40. Plaintiff and other similarly situated individuals are individuals who have worked for Defendants in similarly-titled, hourly paid position, during the statutory period.

41. Plaintiff and other similarly situated individuals all shared similar job titles, training, job descriptions and job tasks, during the statutory period.

42. Plaintiff was an employee of Defendants.

43. Plaintiff was employed as a bar back and general worker at Billy's Sports Bar a/k/a Billy's at the Stadium.

44. From approximately April 8, 2022 through and including the present date, Plaintiff worked five (5) to seven (7) days per week, from 10:00 a.m. to 1:00 a.m. or 2:00 a.m. (i.e., 15 or 16 hours per day), for a total period of approximately 75 to 112 hours during each of the weeks, respectively.

45. From approximately April 8, 2022 through and including the present date, Defendants paid Plaintiff $15 per hour.

46. Plaintiff was required to work in excess of forty (40) hours per week, but never received an overtime premium of one and one-half times his regular rate of pay for those hours.

47. At all times relevant herein, Defendants had a policy and practice commonly known as “time shaving”. Specifically, Defendants would force Plaintiff, and other similarly situated employees, to clock out for a 30- or 45-minute break, despite the fact that they would not actually receive an uninterrupted 30- or 45- minute break.

48. As a result, Plaintiff, and other similarly situated employees, were forced to work off the clock, without pay, during this period.

49. As a result, Plaintiff, and other similarly situated employees, were not paid appropriate overtime wages, in weeks where they worked over forty (40) hours per week, but were not compensated as a result of Defendants’ illegal time shaving policies.

51. Defendants’ conduct extended beyond Plaintiff to all other similarly situated employees.

52. At all relevant times herein, Defendants required Plaintiff, and all similarly situated individuals, to distribute their tips. Such tips were required to be distributed to non-tipped individuals at Billy’s Sports Bar a/k/a Billy’s at the Stadium, to wit: the Individual Defendants.

53. For example, Plaintiff would only receive an average of approximately $100 a month in tips, despite the fact that he earned significantly more tipped wages, as a bar back.

54. Plaintiff, and all similarly situated individuals, were required to give nearly all their tips to the Individual Defendants.

55. As managers, and owners of Billy’s Sports Bar a/k/a Billy’s, the Individual Defendants should not have taken a share of Plaintiff's, and all similarly situated individuals', tips.

56. The employer-mandated tip sharing scheme imposed on Plaintiff and other waitresses is not customary.

57. The employer-mandated tip sharing imposed on Plaintiff was not reasonable.

58. Defendants did not establish, maintain, and preserve records as required by law, or did not make any such records available to Plaintiff or other participants in the mandated tip sharing scheme, that included: (1) a daily log of the tips collected by each employee on each shift, whether in cash or by credit card; (2) a list of occupations that the employer deemed eligible to receive tips through tip sharing; (3) the shares of tips that each occupation was scheduled to receive from tip sharing; and (4) the amount in tips that each employee received from the tip share by date.

59. Defendants did not post in a conspicuous place notices issued by the Department of Labor about wage and hour laws, tip appropriations, or illegal deduction provisions.

60. Defendants did not state the correct gross wages, as defined by NYLL, for any employee on any pay statement as required by NYLL or deductions from the correct gross wages.

61. Plaintiff was required to work in excess of forty (40) hours per week, but never received an overtime premium of one and one-half times his regular rate of pay for those hours.

62. No notification, either in the form of posted notices, or other means, was ever given to Plaintiff regarding wages are required under the FLSA or NYLL.

63. Defendants did not provide Plaintiff a statement of wages, as required by NYLL 195(3).

64. Defendants did not give any notice to Plaintiff of his rate of pay, employer's regular pay day, and such other information as required by NYLL § 195(1).

65. At all relevant times, Defendants did not pay Plaintiff at the rate of one and one-half times his hourly wage rate for hours worked in excess of forty per workweek.
